Dear Dave:

It is with great pleasure that I recommend American Storage and Logistics. During our two years of business relation, you and your company associates have always displayed a high degree of integrity, responsibility, and ambition. Your business is definitely an icon in comparison among other industry leaders. We appreciate your timely response to meeting our ongoing demands and expectations.

We look forward to continuing this business relation and working with your dedicated team to overcome the challenges that are presented to Kawasaki Motors today and in the future.

I know American Storage and Logistics would be an asset to any organization, and I am happy to give you my wholehearted endorsement.

Sincerely,

James Basman
